WELCOME BY ACA PRESIDENT

It gives me great pleasure to welcome, on behalf of the Australian Croquet Association, all players in the four national Association Croquet events covered in this programme. As I write the rain is bucketing down in Maitland on the east coast, but the long-range forecast indicates no chance of anything more than the odd shower for the duration of the events.

So here's to a fine series in fine conditions, and may you all be as pleased with your performances as others will be by them. The ACA has every confidence in SACA's expertise in mounting major events, so we are sure all players will be very well looked after, both on court and off.

The ACA would like to thank very much all officials and volunteers who have been involved in the preparation for these national events, and those (often the same) who will be involved in their presentation.

For most of the event time the ACA will be represented by Neil White, so we would like to thank Neil for taking on this responsibility.

Robyn Wallace
President
Australian Croquet Association.

WELCOME FROM CROQUET SA

On behalf of Croquet SA I would like to extend a warm welcome to all players, officials and spectators who will be present for the 2013 Australian Association Croquet Gold Medal, Men's and Women's Singles and the Eire Cup in Adelaide.

We look forward to seeing many familiar faces and meeting new players and visitors. We are also looking forward to seeing some excellent croquet and hard fought matches.

Thank you to the Clubs who have provided their courts for the Championship. I would also like to thank all the volunteers who have put in so much time to organise all aspects of the championships, your time and expertise is invaluable.

I hope you will enjoy your time here in Adelaide and that some of you will have the time to explore and experience our beautiful city and surrounds.

The best of luck to all.
